1. Read these guidelines carefully

Please read these guidance notes carefully before completing the online application process. Take your time reading and know that it may take you longer than you think to get some information we need. This will all depend on your circumstances but if there is anything you do not understand, please contact us at:

- ▶ socialcareworkers@coru.ie
- ▶ phone 01 293 3160.

Please complete the online application before you apply for eVetting (explained on pages 16 to 18).

2. Guidelines for Section 91 Social Care Workers applicants (existing Practitioners of Social Care Work)

As a Section 91 applicant, you can apply to register with CORU under the Health and Social Care Professionals Act 2005 (as amended).

During the first two years that a register is open - a period known as the Transitional Period - existing practitioners can apply for registration and satisfy the Registration Board that they meet the requirements for registration.

Existing Practitioners of Social Care Work

In making an application to apply to register under the grandparenting route, applicants must provide a Proof of Professional Employment form, which is verification of having been engaged in practice of the profession for the required period.

Please note

An applicant must be able to demonstrate having 2 years practice in the previous 5 on the date of application. An employer must provide attestation that the applicant has been engaged in the practice of the profession, as a Social Care Worker.

Please note

If you have a number of different employments that you intend to provide evidence from in order to attest to the requirement that you have practiced in the profession for 2 out of the previous 5 years, you may need to provide more than one Proof of Professional Employment Form, i.e. a Form is required for any employer relevant to demonstrate that you have practiced for 2 years out of the previous 5 years, at the time of making an application for registration.

A person can apply for registration under the S91 route as an existing practitioner via any one of the five pathways outlined below.

- ▶ An Approved Qualification (click here for list)
- ▶ A Schedule 3 Qualification (click here for list)

- ▶ a qualification that the Social Care Workers Registration Board deem to be a sufficiently relevant qualification and attests to the Standard of Proficiency corresponding to a qualification listed in Schedule 3 of the Act.

- ▶ For an existing practitioner applying via the grandparenting route who doesn't hold an Approved Qualification, a Schedule 3 qualification or a 'Sufficiently Relevant' qualification, they can still apply for registration by providing an Employer's Opinion of Competency. This is a form your employer completes on behalf of the existing practitioner.
- ▶ For existing practitioners that cannot provide any of the above, a pathway known as an Assessment of Professional Competence. The Assessment of Professional Competence requires applicants to undergo an assessment of their professional competence. More information on this can be found here.

Please note

If you do not hold an approved qualification, you will need to upload a certified transcript of your qualification.

If you have an International Qualification that you wish to supply as part of your application for registration, you will need to apply for Recognition. Please see link to this here International Applicants - Coru

Completing your online application

Please note

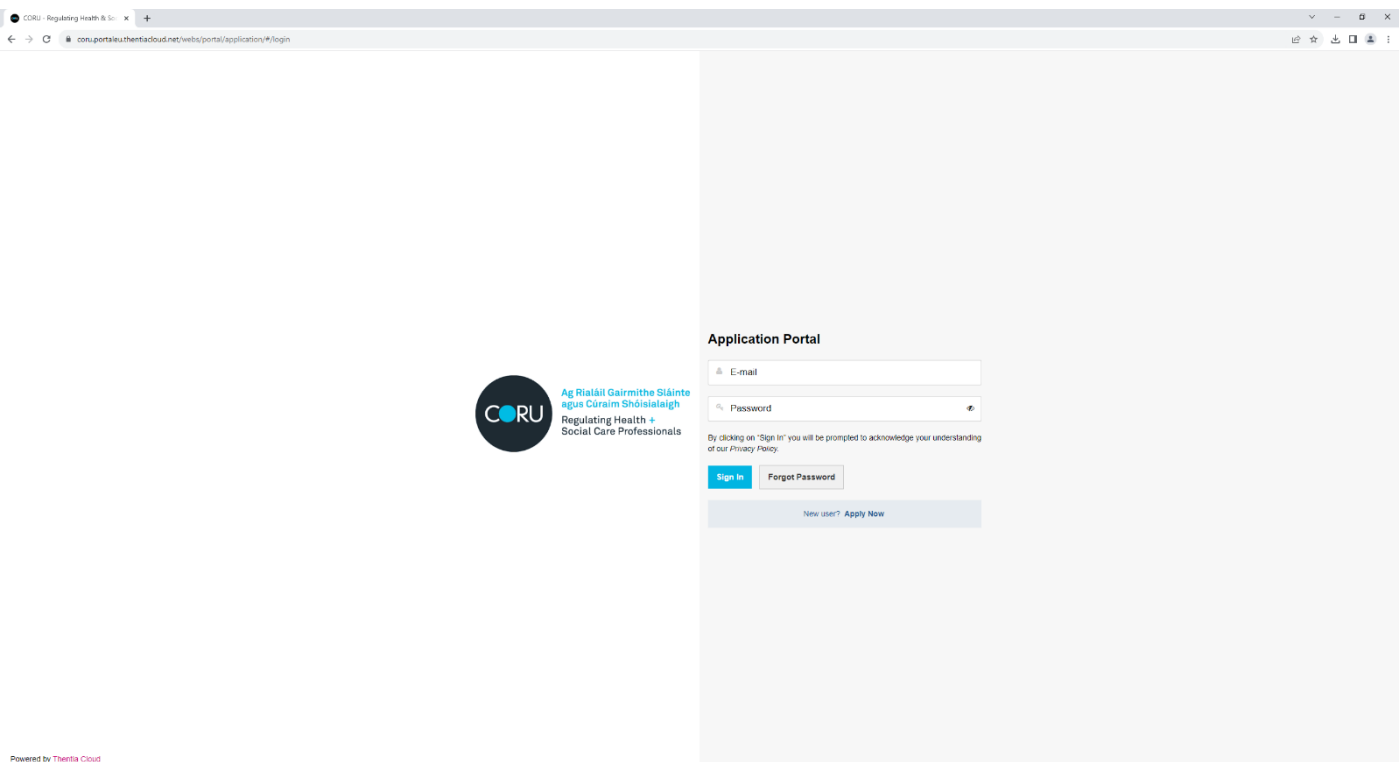

You can only submit a completed application to us via the applicant portal, you must ensure to submit all relevant and required documentation before submitting your application and paying the fee.

- ▶ Revenue Commissioners

We need your main home address so that we can write to you. We will not publish your home address on the Register where the public can see it.

You must fill out the details of your memberships of your regulatory or professional body, or both, on the online system.

Regulatory body membership

We have the right to contact the regulator to verify the information you have given us.

We may also look for 'Certificates of Good Professional Standing' on your behalf from regulators with whom you have been registered.

The Certificate of Good Standing will show at the time of issue:

- ▶ your current registration status with the regulator
- ▶ your registration history (like the date when you first registered with them)
- ▶ whether you have been the subject of any restrictions (like having conditions imposed on your practice or having your registration suspended or revoked).

Professional body membership

Please give details of all professional bodies of which you are a member. The Registration Board may contact the professional body to confirm your membership and good standing.

Answers to all 'fit and proper' questions

You must answer all 15 fit-and-proper questions on the online system.

Fit and proper for the profession

By law, before we can enter your name on the Register for your profession, you must satisfy the Registration Board that you are a fit and proper person to engage in the practice of the profession.

This includes showing that you are of good character and of good physical and mental health.

Tell us about (disclose) material matters

In the Statutory Declaration document, you must make a number of disclosures about your qualification, registration and practice.

These will include:

- ▶ any 'material matter' that has occurred that requires you to make a disclosure.

This means you must tell us information about any situations listed below that happened:

- ▶ in this State, or
- ▶ outside it.

A 'material matter' means any regulatory proceedings within the State or another jurisdiction that have resulted in¹:

- ▶ the imposition of conditions, suspension, cancellation of registration, or
- ▶ the refusal to grant registration, or
- ▶ a) conviction triable on indictment (other than a spent conviction – see note below)

or

- ▶ b) conviction outside the State for an offence consisting of acts or omissions that, if done or made in the State, would constitute an offence triable on indictment in Ireland or another jurisdiction.²

If you are unsure whether or not you have been convicted of an offence which is triable on indictment in Ireland (or would be if the offence had been committed here), you should take legal advice. If you do not disclose (tell us about) a conviction which you should have disclosed, you may be prosecuted.

1 Source of this definition: Section 3 of the Health and Social Care Professionals Act 2005 (as amended).

2 If you are unsure whether you have been convicted of an offence which is triable on indictment in Ireland (or would be if the offence had been committed here), you should take legal advice.

Spent convictions

You do not have to disclose convictions which are spent convictions. Spent convictions are complex, and we strongly advise you to get legal advice in relation to spent convictions. The meaning of spent convictions is set out in Section 5 of the Criminal Justice (Spent Convictions) Act 2016.

Please note

As detailed in Section 45 of the Health and Social Care Professionals Act 2005 (as amended) (the “Act”), you must notify the Registration Board “as soon as practicable” of any relevant issues that may impact your registration. If you make a false declaration, it is an offence under the Act and may result in a complaint being made against you.

You must provide additional information where required in the Fit-and-Proper section of your application.

Information about relevant health conditions

You must disclose (tell us) whether or not you have a relevant medical disability.

If you have (or have had in the past) a physical or mental health condition that may affect your ability to practice the profession for which you seek registration, you must give full details.

If you answer ‘yes’ to any of the questions, it does not necessarily mean you are ineligible to register. It is an opportunity for you to show how you manage your health issues, and how this enables you to provide safe service to service users.

However, if you fail to give us relevant and accurate information, it will affect your application for registration.

If you have declared a health condition, we advise you to give us a letter from your treating medical professional for the attention of the board.

Vetting with the National Vetting Bureau

All applicants must complete the eVetting process with the National Vetting Bureau (“NVB”). It is a requirement of registration. Follow the seven steps to do this on the next two pages.

Our disclosure policy means that the person in CORU who has Garda authorisation may disclose certain details to the Registration Board. These include details of convictions, or prosecutions, or both, successful or not, pending or completed, in the State or elsewhere.

See table on the next two pages which show you the key stages in the eVetting process.

You can do this on the 'eVetting' page in the applicant portal when you are entering your information to apply online.

You may complete the eVetting Invitation Form:

- ▶ electronically in Acrobat Reader on a computer, or
- ▶ by hand.

You must sign it by hand and date it (using a ball point pen).

3. Attach proof of identity and current address to completed form.

You must provide a copy of:

- ▶ your photo ID, and
- ▶ a document which confirms your current address.

Attach these to your completed eVetting Invitation Form. You may also need to provide your certificate of marriage/change of name.

Acceptable forms of ID

- ▶ Photo page of your driving licence (issued from 2013 onwards).
- ▶ Photo page of your current passport.
- ▶ Photocopy of both sides of passport card.

When we receive your eVetting Invitation Form, we will verify your application. If all is in order, we will enter your details on the National Vetting Bureau eVetting system. The eVetting system will then send you a link to the eVetting application form. This link is valid for 30 days.

Please note

Please ensure to check your spam folder as the invite from the National Vetting Bureau may go there.

6. Follow the link in the email to complete the eVetting Application Form (NVB2) online.

When you access the online Vetting Application Form, you can enter your details and all of the addresses (both in Ireland and abroad) at which you have lived since birth.

7. We will email you to let you know when we have received the outcome of the eVetting.

When you complete the eVetting application form online, we will then review it. We will submit it to the National Vetting Bureau to be processed. When the vetting result is returned to us, you will be automatically emailed with the result when the outcome is downloaded by our Liaison Person (a CORU staff member).

We have a right to raise queries about anything that you may have not disclosed and about anything else arising as a result of vetting.

Certificate of Criminal Clearance

If you have lived abroad for one year and one day, or longer, after the age of 18 (working or not), you must provide a certified copy (explained on page 5) of a Certificate of Criminal Clearance (also known as Police Clearance). You must give us one for each country where you have lived for one year and one day, or longer, with your application.

The Certificate of Criminal Clearance provided from that country can be no older than three months' old on the date of application. So, make sure that the Certificate of Criminal Clearance was issued within the three months of your online application for CORU registration, for example if you apply on 30 November 2023, your certificate of criminal clearance should be issued no later than 30 August 2023.

If you got police clearance for a country some time ago and have not returned to live in that country, you may submit a certified copy of that document.

If you don't already have a Certificate of Criminal Clearance, please contact the embassy or consulate for the relevant country for details on how to get one.

If you are unable to secure a Certificate of Criminal Clearance for a particular country, please contact us.

We will check your application to make sure it is valid. If your eVetting Invitation Form is completed correctly we will enter it into the National Vetting Bureau (NVB) system. We may contact you to clarify information in your application.

When we have all the documents and the verification process has been completed, including vetting, we will bring your application to the Registration Board for decision.

The Registration Board may look for more information from you before deciding on your application. In addition, the Registration Board may look for information about you from other bodies.

If the Registration Board is satisfied that you have met the criteria, it will grant you registration. Your name will be entered on to the register for your profession and you will be issued a Certificate of Registration.

Closure of incomplete applications

If you do not provide the documents within an appropriate timeframe, your application will be deemed withdrawn and shall be closed. If you wish to apply for registration after your application has been closed, you will need to make a new application and pay a new application fee.

This means that you will have to show the original documents to one of the above. They must include their stamp on the copies to show they have been certified. If the certifier does not have an official seal or stamp, then they must provide a signature and full name and address in block capitals.

You may be submitting a qualification certificate, or academic transcript, or both. If so, the registrar (or someone authorised by the registrar) of the university or educational institution that granted the qualification may certify the document as a true copy of the original.

Proof of professional practice

As a Section 91 (existing practitioner) applicant, you must demonstrate proof of professional practice as a Social Care Worker.

- ▶ For 2 years out of the last 5 years within the Republic of Ireland, the UK and/or the European Union prior to the date of application from 30 November 2023 and ending on 30 November 2025. This is also known as 'grandparenting' period.

As an Employee:

If employed by the HSE or privately, your employer must complete a Proof of Professional Employment Form (“POPE”).

- ▶ <https://coru.ie/files-registration/proof-of-professional-employment-form.pdf>

The form must be completed in full:

- ▶ Full professional name
- ▶ Official Title
- ▶ Dates of employment
- ▶ Hours worked
- ▶ Job Description
- ▶ Employer's name and contact details
- ▶ Employer signature
- ▶ Date and organisational stamp

If there is no stamp available, the employer must explain why in the relevant space. We can accept multiple POPEs if needed to make up the two years' practice.

A note regarding titles

Engagement in the practice of the profession may also include those in management, education and research directly related to the profession as set out in the Registration Board's policy.

The purpose of the proof of professional practice form is to verify that you were working in the profession during the relevant period. You must print this form at the end of the online process.

You should get this completed, signed and stamped by the relevant organisation and get it back from them before you submit it CORU. We may contact your current or previous employers to confirm some or all of the information provided

Important note for S91 (transition or grandparenting) applicants

Before we accept that you have submitted an application under transitional or grandparenting arrangements (section 91), you must have:

- ▶ completed and submitted the online application form and uploaded the required documentation.
- ▶ paid the application fee

You must have done this on or before the stated deadline.

Partly completed S91 applications that have been started on the online application system (but have not been submitted) will be removed from the system immediately after the application deadline has passed. This means they cannot be submitted to CORU after the transitional period has closed.
